ORDINANCE NO. 10-2019 Clmn Nenadovich advised that he would move to consider by title.

Clmn Vaughn proposed creating a City Council Webpage about legislation to help residents understand city matters better and get the truth out and suggested that Council discuss it in committee first. Clmn Nenadovich suggested the Legislative Committee.

Clmn Dudley felt that Council Members names should appear on signs indicating construction work.

There was a general discussion of the fact that, on January 25, 2019, Mayor Collova had rescinded the offer to allow Finance Director Barbara Biro help Maple Heights out of fiscal emergency. Ms. Biro explained what she had accomplished for Maple Heights and Council agreed 100% that she was always loyal to Garfield Heights.

Law Director Tim Riley said that regarding a social media presence, the city already had a Website and Council should work with its IT Department to modernize it. Clmn Vaughn emphasized that today people are used to finding information on the Web and the city should progress with the times. Council President Burke would call a meeting of the Legislative Committee.

Cllm Glenn would offer the Invocation and lead the Pledge of Allegiance.

Cllm Suster moved to adjourn the Caucus Meeting and Cllm Nenadovich seconded. The motion stood approved unanimously.

Council President Burke adjourned the Caucus Meeting at 6:55 p.m.

Approved,

Respectfully Submitted,

Matthew Burke
President of Council
